If you are a customer in bankruptcy or a customer who has received a bankruptcy discharge of this debt: please be advised that this notice is to advise you of the status of your mortgage loan. This notice constitutes neither a demand for payment nor a notice of personal liability to any recipient hereof, who might have received a discharge of such debt in accordance with applicable bankruptcy laws or who might be subject to the automatic stay of Section 362 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

Notice of Error or Information Request Address

You have certain rights under Federal law related to resolving errors in the servicing of your loan and requesting information about your loan. If you want to request information about your loan or if you believe an error has occurred in the servicing of your loan and would like to submit an Error Resolution or Informational Request, please write to us. Additionally, if you believe we have furnished inaccurate information to credit reporting agencies, please write to us with specific details regarding those errors and any supporting documentation that you have and we will assist you. Error Resolution, including concerns of inaccurate information sent to credit reporting agencies, or requests for information should be sent to the following address:

Newrez LLC P.O. Box 10826 Greenville, SC 29603

Housing Counselor Information: If you would like counseling or assistance, you can contact the following: U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD): For a list of homeownership counselors or counseling organizations in your area, go to http://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/hcs.cfm or call 800-569-4287.

Amounts paid in excess of your payment amount will first be used to satisfy any delinquency. If there are no past due amounts then excess funds paid will be posted to your principal balance. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Newrez LLC may assess a returned check fee consistent with the laws for your state and your loan documents on all checks returned by your financial institution.
